POLICIES

1. Credit by CLEP, AP, Institutional Advanced Standing examination or other examinations may not impinge on Major Residency requirements.
2. Authorization will not be given for a course under any of the following circumstances.
 - A. If the course has been previously audited.
 - B. If the course has been previously scheduled and failed.
 - C. If the course has been previously scheduled, but the student has withdrawn after two calendar weeks from the day the semester begins.
 - D. If the student is currently enrolled in the course.
 - E. If the course is an introduction to a course for which the student is currently enrolled. (This provision does not apply to skill courses such as Physical Education or Music, for example).
3. Credit earned by the Institutional Advanced Standing examination may neither be used to satisfy Residency requirements nor used to satisfy more than one-half of the major field or minor field requirements in a program of study.
4. In general, a passing grade for an Institutional Advanced Standing examination is a grade of 75% or higher for a lower division course and a grade of 80% or higher for an upper division course. However, an academic department may create a higher standard for passage.
5. A fee will be assessed for each Institutional Advanced Standing examination attempted; no course may be attempted more than once.
6. A student must be admitted to Kennesaw State University at the time of the application for Advanced Standing examination and must be enrolled in the university to receive credit for a course by Advanced Standing examination.
7. If a student transfers to another university, it is the decision of that institution as to whether or not the examination credit will transfer.
